In one of the oldest parts of Palma this renovated duplex apartment is located on the square with cafés, local life and a beautiful church. This home is like a small boutique hotel. It is restored and renovated with the traditional architectural Mallorquin stone walls and wooden beams. The apartment has its entrance from the ground floor and is a gem with architectural furniture and designs. The mixture between the modern design and the original old, the ceiling of 5 meters, an atrium glass door including an outside patio is unique. An iconic patio open air with plants and trees as a lounge area and a sun deck gives an extra dimension and light to the apartment. All materials, colors, style and design has been chosen by the owners/ designers. The spacious living room, dining area and kitchen is on the ground floor. The wooden staircase leads you to the second floor with a library and connection the bedroom section and bathroom. The small property hosts only 3 other units/ apartments.
