This apartment, located in the heart of Palma's Old Town, has great potential to become a real gem. Located on the fifth floor of a residential building, the apartment receives a lot of natural light. The built-up area of approximately 160 m² is distributed as follows: from the entrance hall you enter into a spacious and cozy living/dining room with large windows. Adjacent is a large fully equipped kitchen with breakfast table and a small laundry room. In total, the apartment has four spacious bedrooms and two bathrooms. With a little effort and creativity, this apartment can be turned into a modern and elegant home. The building has an elevator, allowing easy access to all floors. It is also possible to rent a parking space nearby. Don't miss the opportunity to purchase a property with many possibilities in a privileged location.
