This exquisite finca is located near Lluçmajor and offers incredible privacy and magnificent views. The house has four bedrooms: three in the main building and one in a separate tower, which is accessed from the outside. The tower bedroom has its own bathroom and a private terrace, making it the perfect place for guests. The master bedroom stands out for its own spa area, from where you can admire the stars at night. The beautiful garden features a large pond and an impressive swimming pool, as well as many cozy corners to relax. Manicured paths, numerous seating areas and unique art objects created with attention to detail invite you to enjoy strolls through this secluded paradise. On warm summer evenings, you can retire to the barbecue house, where the kitchen is equipped to a high standard and the large Argentine barbecue area is ideal for a family evening. This cosy traditional estate also has excellent transport accessibility. For more information about this unique property, please contact us.
